IT'S TIME TO GET DIET WHERE IT BELONGS...

MOVING? Please use form inside paper and give full information. Mailing list is run on Friday for following week.

I reckon there ain't very many subjects that have created more upsurge and accomplished as little as the fuss over the diet we Americans have been enjoying for all these years. Between the Burrocrats and Food Faddists, enervated Congress was need to be told what we are supposed to like and what we are to be ordered not to eat whether we like it or not.

We was hassled as the radio (in other day to some folks) and his wife, who eat no meat and dang little in the way of processed food, they claim. Of course, they have a book point-in-out how the abysmal ignorance of you and me are to be changed and how meat probably are to be banned. They referred to meat as "flesh" and thereby displayed the typical fanatic fringe ability to make a dirty word out a clean one.

$255 Million Tendered For Iowa Beef Processors, Inc., by West Coast's Pacific Holding Corp., Last Week

It was announced this week that all factors of Iowa Beef Processors, Inc., the nation's largest meat packer, have approved an offer from Pacific Holding Corp., of $250 million for the 82% of Iowa Beef stock the privately held Pacific Holding does not own. The transaction, if approved by holders of the majority of Iowa Beef's shares and regulatory agencies, would involve an estimated $255 million dollars.

Pacific Holding is reportedly holding $10,000 shares of the 4.5 million Iowa Beef common shares either currently or potentially outstanding. Iowa Beef stock rose an average of $14.50 per share Monday to a composite average of $58.125 per share.

The proposal points up the capital intensive nature of all types of livestock and meat business and indicates that meat packing and beef industries are approaching the same position as other lines, including pork production. It has been pointed out recently that the reason pork production has not risen to the level of favorable returns in leaders by the automated nature of hog production and the industry's need to invest large sums of money in the state of current good results. Recently the swing business was compared to General Motors production when observers said, "Just because GM has one good year does not induce them to expand facilities immediately."

Fed Cattle, Hogs Sharply Lower Monday at Major Terminal Markets

AMERICAN RED BRANGUS ASSOCIATION NEWS

REUNION 20 — Biggest Red Brangus Event Ever!

By JOHN SOSNOWY
You are invited to the Hill Country of Texas on Dec. 1 & 2 for what promises to be the biggest Red Brangus Event ever. We are calling it "Reunion 20" because it all centers around our 20th annual membership meeting of the American Red Brangus Assn. There will be something for everyone including the first annual Red Brangus Assn. Heifer Futurity and Sale; 7th annual Paleface Ranch bull sale; 20th annual Paleface Ranch bull sale; 20th annual ARBA membership meeting. Lots of food, drink and fellowship. Headquarters for Reunion 20 will be the famous Lakeway Inn located 20 miles west of Austin, Texas off Ranch Road 820. A block of rooms has been set aside for ARBA members and guests. Call 512/261-8900 for reservations.

The heifer futurity and both the bull and heifer sales will be held at the Paleface Ranch near Spicewood, Texas, 25 miles west of Austin off State Highway 71.
Here's the complete schedule of events. Thursday night, Nov. 30, hospitality suite at the Lakeway Inn for early arrivals; Friday, Dec. 1, 10 a.m., Heifer futurity judging at Paleface Ranch Headquarters; 11 a.m., presentation of awards; Noon, Barbecue lunch; 1 p.m., 7th annual Paleface Ranch bull sale; 4 p.m., immediately after bull sale, sale of all Futurity heifers; 7 p.m., post-sale party at the Lakeway Inn.
Saturday, Dec. 2 — 9 a.m. ARBA board of directors meeting; Lakeway Inn. Noon — lunch for all ARBA members and guests, Lakeway Inn. 1 p.m. — REUNION 20, 20th Annual ARBA membership meeting, Lakeway Inn. Eighteen superior quality Red Brangus heifers from Texas and Louisiana have been nominated for the heifer futurity. Each ranch was allowed only one nominee, so every heifer is top of the line. Twelve heifers have been entered in the junior class, and 6 are entered in the senior class. As our Futurity judge, we are very fortunate to have secured the services of Dr. Larry

Anita Polk, recording secretary of American Red Brangus Assn., chats with her husband, Dale Polk, with a pen of Red Brangus in the background. She was gathering information for the ARBA's "Reunion 20" which will include the first annual "Superior Heifer" futurity show and sale, the 7th annual Paleface Ranch bull sale and 20th annual ARBA membership meeting, all coming up Dec. 1 and 2 west of Austin.

Boleman, extension area beef cattle specialist from Texas A&M University. Over $2,000 in prize money will be awarded to the champion heifers. Texas State Land Commissioner and Red Brangus breeder Bob Armstrong will be on hand to make the presentations to the winners. All futurity heifers will be sold immediately following the 7th annual Paleface Ranch bull sale on the afternoon of Dec. 1. This sale will offer an unprecedented opportunity to acquire top-notch females of the kind that here-before have been unavailable at any price. The birth of the Red Brangus Breed took place in Texas over 30 years ago when Mike Levi of the Paleface Ranch continued the crossbreeding program begun by his father. Mike still runs the Paleface Ranch operation today with the able assistance of wife, Fan, stepson, Johnny Cox and his wife Janice. Although they have been selling Red Brangus cattle for over 80 years, this is only their 7th public sale. One hundred bulls, the top out of this year's crop, will be offered in this year's production sale beginning at 1 p.m. on Friday, Dec. 1. Bert Reyes will be auctioneer and Matt Syler is Sale Manager. For further information and catalogs write Mike Levi, Rt. 1, Box 18, Spicewood, Texas 78660, or call 512/284-1711. Use this opportunity to try at least one Red Brangus bull and find out for yourself why they're known as "Profit Producers". This year's general membership meeting is REUNION 20 — the 20th annual membership meeting of the American Red Brangus Assn. It will be (CONT. ON PAGE 8)

The eighteen outstanding heifers above are nearing completion of their preparation for the first annual American Red Brangus Assn. "Superior Heifer" Futurity that will be held the morning of Dec. 1 at the Paleface Ranch at Spicewood, 25 miles west of Austin on Highway 71. Dr. Randall Grooms, Overton, will judge the heifers in the show that morning and they will sell at 4 p.m. that afternoon following the annual Paleface Ranch Brangus bull sale at 1 p.m.

Some think President Carter should abolish the post of Secretary of the Treasury now that all the money's gone.

Tax Savings On Drought Losses —
Farmers and ranchers may be able to save on income tax if they suffered drought losses during 1977, says an economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. A rancher may be able to elect to defer reporting income from the sale of certain livestock because of drought conditions. Farmers may be able to elect to defer for one year the reporting of crop insurance payments from the loss year the crops were destroyed or damaged by drought. The Internal Revenue Service can provide the details.

Texans Among Red Angus Breeders Honored in Gallery

Pioneer Texas Red Angus breeders were among those named to a new "Pioneer Breeder Gallery" set up by the Red Angus Assn. of America in its 25th anniversary convention at San Francisco, Nov. 1-4.

The "Gallery" was set up to honor long-standing members of the association who have made outstanding contributions through their service and performance to the breed and association. Mrs. Joe Perry, Columbus, Texas, and Mrs. S. Taylor, McDaniel of Corpus Christi will receive the awards on behalf of their late husbands.

Others named to the premier gallery were George and Bernice Chiga, Cutler, Okla.; Mrs. Sally Forbes and her late husband, Waldo, Sheridan, Wyo.; Joe Givhan, Montgomery, Ala.; George Hetzel of Kinsley, Kan., and Ann and John Gyneden, Gurley, La.

Each of these nine persons honored will have a plaque bearing their portraits engraved in metal, and the original registration certificate of the first seven bulls registered by the national association hung in the "Pioneer Breeder's Gallery" being installed in the national headquarters at Denton, Texas.

In future years, two other pioneer Red Angus breeders will be honored.

Jim Leachman New RAAA President

San Francisco — Jim Leachman of Leachman Cattle Co., Billings, Mont., was elected president of the Red Angus Association of America in its 25th anniversary convention here Nov. 1-4.

Now directors to the national association are: Bob Baker, Mountain Home, Idaho; Boy Beahy; Mrs. Sally Forbes, Sheridan, Wyo.; and Joanne James, Searaboro, Iowa.

Paul Radd was elected to a second term as a regional director from the Great Plains Region; Clifford Helfmann, Rowena, was elected as a regional director from Texas; which now has only one region and the expiration of another Texas director, Gayle Ingram, Gultman, was filled as a national-at-large directorship by Stan Nemesler, Lanark, Ill.

Red Angus National Sale Averages $1,867

San Francisco — In the Red Angus Association of America's Silver Anniversary sale held at the Cow Palace here Nov. 8, the 27 lots grossed $52,225 for an average of $1,834. William F. "Bill" Lefty, Lincoln, Calif., was the auctioneer.

A capacity crowd on hand for the sale saw cattle go to buyers from more than a dozen states, including one Texan, Mark Miller of Joshua, who bought a bred heifer consigned by Rapid Canyon Ranch of Sheridan, Wyo., for $1,700.

Texas Entries Do Well in National Red Angus Show

San Francisco — Texas entries placed well in the national Red Angus Association Silver Anniversary Show in the association's convention here Nov. 1-4. Capacity crowds attended both the national show and sale held in the Cow Palace.

Mar Miller of Joshua, Texas, co-tarred a Feb. 18, 1977 bull that placed first in his class and was later named national champion bull. Bobby and Barry Naubers of Tompkins showed a first place heifer in her class and a 2nd place bull. Tim Bauer of Winnie had a second place bull in his class.

Mike Sweet, executive secretary of Red Angus Association of America, Denton, Texas, said the competition was one of the strongest ever held by the national association.

The champion calf got of sire honor went to Eakins Hawkeye Farms, of Bloomfield, Iowa.

Lou Hertenberger Successful Producing Red Angus For Commercial Cattlemen

Novato — Lou and Margaret Hertenberger, owners of Harmony Hill Red Angus Farm near here, have built a highly successful registered cattle business on the philosophy that "You've got to produce the kind of cattle that will work for the commercial cattleman — and he's got to produce the kind of beef that his customers like to eat."

He believes there's only three breeds of beef cattle which do that — Angus, Hereford and Shorthorn. He prefers Red Angus simply because he likes the red color better than black.

"I'm afraid that the current trend toward crossbreeding will ultimately do a great disservice to the beef cattle industry because of the types of cattle being crossed in an effort to get fast gains and more bone and lean meat," he said.

"I believe that tough, stringy meat with lots of gristle that tastes more like cardboard than steak will eventually greatly hurt the market for beef," he added.

"It's well established that Angus produces tasty meat with enough marbling to keep it tender while it cooks," he said.

"And Angus will go into a feedlot and grade prime in 100 days instead of requiring 160 to 180 days like many types of cattle require — and there's certainly a big difference in the cost of feeding an animal to the desired market grade in 80 to 90 days less time," he said.

Such thinking has established a ready market for Hertenberger's bulls, all of which are sold to commercial cattlemen, and most to repeat customers. "We could sell lots more bulls than we can produce," Margaret Hertenberger said.

The Harmony Hills herd of about 60 to 70 mother cows and about 15 replacement heifers usually produces about 80 to 85 bulls each year. Of those, only about half are retained as prospective herd bulls and the other half are sent to an auction barn. The number of sale bulls is further reduced as the bulls get older, because Hertenberger doesn't sell bulls for breeding that he wouldn't want to keep in his own herd.

"Lots of my bull customers just call on the telephone, I tell them what I have and the price, and they say send him to me and I'll send you a check," Hertenberger says.

Using primarily two lines of Red Angus, "Choctaw Chief" and "Rebel," Hertenberger has developed since 1968 a herd of highly fertile (about 96 percent calf crop each year) cows that average about 1000 pounds when they wean their calves. He keeps a detailed set of records on each animal including weaning weight, yearling weight, and a cow's weight when she weans each calf. The records also reflect each cow's production with a follow-up on her

Amerispain

Amerispain is a new Copyrighted American Breed, and here are several reasons why it is important to you whether you are a Commercial or Registered Breeder.

Amerispain is going to take a lot of problems out of Cattle raising, and put a lot more money in the bank at the end of the year, all for different reasons than you are used to hearing.

The Breeding Combinations which are involved in Amerispain have already been tested by hundreds of Breeders and proven to date as good or better than anything else.

We could fill this Magazine with documents, facts and figures from both Breeders and Colleges alike, but better yet come see us, or let us come see you.

You can enroll your own cows and be off to a great start, or we have foundation heifers for sale now from the background of several choices.

There is always a definite advantage in being among the first in any Breed Program.

You not only will prosper by being first in your area or state to produce such outstanding cattle, but we offer a tremendous opportunity for those who qualify as appraisers for the breed. These are needed in many sections of the country.

If you want to do something worth doing, contact us soon. We are going ahead, and hope you go with us.

Russians Purchase 460 Santa Gertrudis Cattle

Kingville - The largest purchase by a foreign buyer in the history of the Santa Gertrudis breed was made in mid-September when representatives of the Russian government selected 460 purebred heifers and 10 bulls for shipment to the U.S.S.R.

The Russians have been buyers of the breed in past years, but never in this quantity. Representatives on the buying mission purchased on other breeds of beef cattle, indicating their preference for the Santa Gertrudis. They did purchase some Halstein dairy cattle.

Negotiations between the buyer and seller were handled by Tom and Sam Redford, Hamilton, Texas, brokers and Santa Gertrudis breeders. The Redfords were working with C. T. Barnes, Jr., managing director of American Marketing Services, Inc. International with headquarters at Richmond, Virginia. This firm had the contract to purchase the cattle for the Russians.

Tom Redford said that when he and his son got the contract to find the cattle, they contacted many breeders in the U.S.A.

These who provided the animals are Don Wendt, Bay City, Texas - 100 females and 4 bulls; Moe Crumrine, TS Ranch, Palo Pinto, Texas - 80 females and 3 bulls; Lynn Wilson, Part Worth, Texas - 6 females and 3 bulls; Lynn Ranches, Aliso, Texas - 33 females; La Ploma Ranch, Riviera, Texas - 128 females; and Collier Ranch, Waco, Texas - 100 females.

Prices received for the animals were not revealed. The cattle consisted of penned and yearling heifers and yearling bulls.

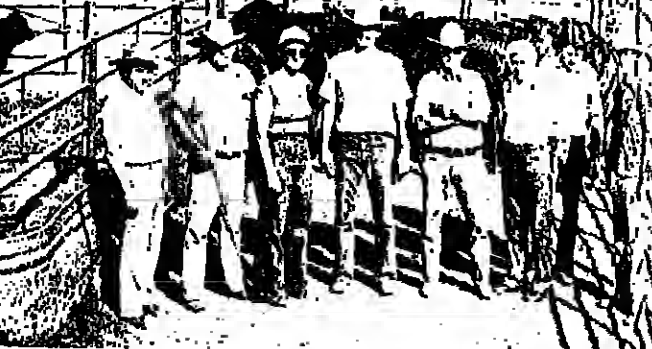

Representatives of the Russian government who selected the animals were Dr. Ivan I. Yashchenko, deputy director of the All-Union Veterinary Research Institute, Moscow region, and Dr. Yuriy Shishalov, a veterinarian.

Other members of the buyers' group were the Redfords, Barnes, Lynn Howard of the Texas Department of Agriculture and Sara Kinsey of Washington, D.C., co-interpreter.

Barnes will ship the cattle to the Virginia area where they will go into quarantine prior to being shipped to Russia, and by ship or by air.

Pesticide Laws Revisions Endorsed
Waco, Texas Farm Bureau President Carroll Chaloupka said the newly-amended pesticide law is a victory for both farmers and consumers.

ing prudent concerns about the safety of a pesticide before the agency may issue an RPAR against the pesticide.

The provisions for state and federal issuance of experimental use permits are modified to permit greater state flexibility and require the federal government to act in a timely fashion.

8. This law is amended to permit the sale of restricted use pesticides to farmers who are not certified applicators if the pesticide application is to be made by a certified applicator.

9. Enforcement provisions of the law are amended to permit states to assume primary authority for enforcing the pesticide law. Currently, 80 states have a cooperative agreement and several other states are expected to participate in the program.

10. Federal oversight over state practices has been delayed. Federal review and veto authority over individual issued registrations of similar use patterns is deleted. EPA review of the individual registrations of dissimilar use patterns is retained (such as registering an outdoor pesticide for use within the home).

Tim, a 1,197-pound crossbred Maine-Anjou Angus steer (Ethan Son) was selected Grand Champion out of a field of 410 steers. Wyoming had calves steady to 3.00 off. Prices accomplished the turn-around from recent downturns although factors to which to attribute the change in atmosphere are hard to come by. Slaughter steers and heifers improved to be an up and down affair during the week with the general direction riding on the lower side. Areas which have been complaining of dry conditions still have not received any moisture to relieve the situation.
